Course description: Microsoft Office Word 2010 is a word processing program you can use to create documents, from the simplest letters to sophisticated presentations. We will show you how to use the Ribbon, which replaces the menus and toolbars used in earlier versions of Word, to create, edit, and enhance your Microsoft Word documents. Then we go beyond the basics, to show you advanced Word 2010 features. You will see how to format documents with Styles, how to change page layouts, how to create mail merge documents, and how to improve your documents with graphics, templates, lists and tables. You will also see how to customize Word to suit the way you work.
