React by Example, Part 6 of 7: Product Filter Component

page 1

Meet the expert: John Smilga is a Front-End Web Developer in the Los Angeles Area. John has a Bachelor’s Degree in Software Development. He spends most of his time working with Javascript, CSS3, and HTML5, and he is passionate about everything related to web development. He learns from the community and loves to share with the community what he has learned. He strives to explain very complex topics in a simple manner that everyone can understand.

Prerequisites: This course is a continuation of the React Series.
React, Part 1 of 7: React Basics
React, Part 2 of 7: Intermediate React
React, Part 3 of 7: City Tours Project
React, Part 4 of 7: Advanced React
React, Part 5 of 7: TODO Project
React, Part 6 of 7: Food2Fork Project
React, Part 7 of 7: Tech Store Intro

Part 7 of 7 will be very helpful as the Tech store buildout is continued

Runtime: 01:20:57

Course description: React is a Javascript library for building user interfaces. Tech store Application is getting close to completion, this course adds filters to the products page, as well as create the component to do this.

Course outline:

Context Setup
• Introduction
• Context Setup
• Get Max Price
• Summary

Products Component Setup
• Introduction
• Products Component Setup
• Product and Count
• Summary

Filter Component
• Introduction
• Filter Component
• Category Search
• Styling
• Summary

Select Input Logic
• Introduction
• Select Input Logic
• Companies
• Summary

HandleChange Method
• Introduction
• HandleChange Method
• Handlr Filtering
• Summary

sortData Method
• Introduction
• sortData Method
• Filter Method
• Search Length
• Summary